Year 2: Guest Relations Supervisor

At Notiz Hotel in Leeuwarden, the Guest Relations department is located in the lobby and plays a key role in creating a warm, welcoming atmosphere for all guests — with special attention to VIPs and those celebrating special occasions. Our mission is to deliver exceptional, personalized service that fosters lasting connections and enhances the overall guest experience.

The team is responsible for managing the ambiance of the lobby, preparing special room arrangements, and organizing thoughtful touches for events such as birthdays, weddings, and anniversaries. Whether it's a personalized welcome card, a custom amenity, or a complimentary drink, we aim to exceed expectations and make every guest feel truly valued.

Role of the Guest Relations Supervisor

As the second in command, the Guest Relations Supervisor supports the department manager by:

- Coordinating daily operations and ensuring service consistency.
- Overseeing VIP and special guest experiences from arrival to departure.
- Delegating tasks and guiding team members in delivering personalized service.
- Ensuring the lobby environment reflects the hotel's standards of excellence.
- Acting as a point of contact for guest feedback and resolving issues promptly.
- Assisting and support Front Office staff and maintaining high service standards.

At Notiz Hotel, we believe that going the extra mile is what transforms a stay into a memorable experience — and our Guest Relations team is dedicated to making that happen every day.
